Early Season Tune Up

❄️ With AST 2 accreditation ❄️

The Deets:

- December 18th – 22nd
- Flying in and out of Kaslo BC
- 5 days of instruction/mentoring with 2 local ACMG Guides (Spoiler alert: Brendan & Pate)
- Nutritious simple Breakfasts and Dinners included (BYO snacks and lunch)

Start your season off right by sharpening your terrain assessment and avalanche rescue skills from a cozy cabin at 2200m.

This early season tune up week we will cover everything to get you AST 2 certified and then some. Daily ski tours, snowpack/forecast analysis, skin track school, refining your daily process and evening fireside chats. End it all with a cold beer and sauna.

Bonus courses: Après 101 and Waxing Party

Come home with your skis waxed, new touring friends and a good understanding of how our snowpack is shaping up for the season
